Call for Nominations

A highlight of the 2009 Hiwassee College Homecoming on November 14th will be the presentation of awards to outstanding alumni and the introduction of newly elected members and officers of the Board of Governors. The Awards and Honors Committee and the Elections Committee of the Alumni Board of Governors are charged with the responsibility of gathering names of persons whom you, Hiwassee alumni, consider deserving of these special recognitions.

The Alumni Association is seeking nominations for two awards to be given in November and nominations for new officers and panel members.

Outstanding Alumnus of the Year -

Annually awarded to Hiwassee alumnus who has demonstrated "Distinguished faithfulness and service to Hiwassee College".

Distinguished Community Service Award -

A tri-annual presentation award to a Hiwassee Alumnus who fulfills the following criteria: "A Hiwassee College Alumnus who has demonstrated a life of service to others; and current or past involvement in community service"

Please note: A Hiwassee College alumnus is defined as "a person who has attended the college one or more terms in good standing."
